

Create a Full Solution, Not a Fulltime Job

Searching site after site for every product and part. Flipping through old projects and piecing together new ones. Specifying can turn into a fulltime job (on top of the one you already have). You're beyond the busywork and so is inSpec, powered by Zurn.

Not only can you skip the tedious tasks that take up your time, but you'll have all of the plumbing product information you need at your fingertips in an instant. Select from compatible products to specify a seamless solution, pick up where you left off without losing progress, share your projects with colleagues at any point, and be confident that the work you put in will work in the end.

Make More Happen With Less Effort

We automated the tasks that used to sidetrack your entire day.

CREATE UNLIMITED CONFIGURATIONS

You manage your products. There's no limit to the number of configurations you build and they will always be up-to-date.

SOLIDIFY YOUR BASIS OF DESIGN

Organize a list of the specifications you frequently use for future projects.

EDIT, SHARE AND COPY PROJECTS

Share your projects with colleagues from your company to gather feedback and collaborate.

GENERATE YOUR SUBMITTAL PACKAGE

Download your p-schedule, spec sheets, BIM, and Master Spec documents from one consolidated page.

Breathe in Between Projects

Now your projects can happen at your pace instead of a race against the clock with every possible obstacle in front of you.

Easier Specifying

- Select from our complete plumbing product line
- Specify compatible products to create always up-to-date configurations
- Copy existing projects or use your basis of design to quickly access your top configurations

Faster Sharing

- Invite colleagues to projects
- Gather feedback and edit projects together
- Digitally manage your projects in one place

Effortless Submitting

- Download your full submittal package
